CORPORATE AIRCRAFT SALES & ACQUISITIONS

A trusted reference in corporate aircraft transactions. Worldwide.

Founded in 1997 by Formula 1 Driver Thierry Boutsen, Boutsen Aviation specializes in the sale and acquisition of corporate aircraft, offering a bespoke, end-to-end service to a discerning international clientele.

Our experienced team combines market knowledge and technical expertise with a rigorous process to ensure efficient and successful aircraft transactions. From initial evaluation to closing & delivery, we manage every step with discretion, transparency, and attention to detail.

Headquartered in Monaco and active across 73 countries, we have successfully completed more than 430 transactions across 19 manufacturers.

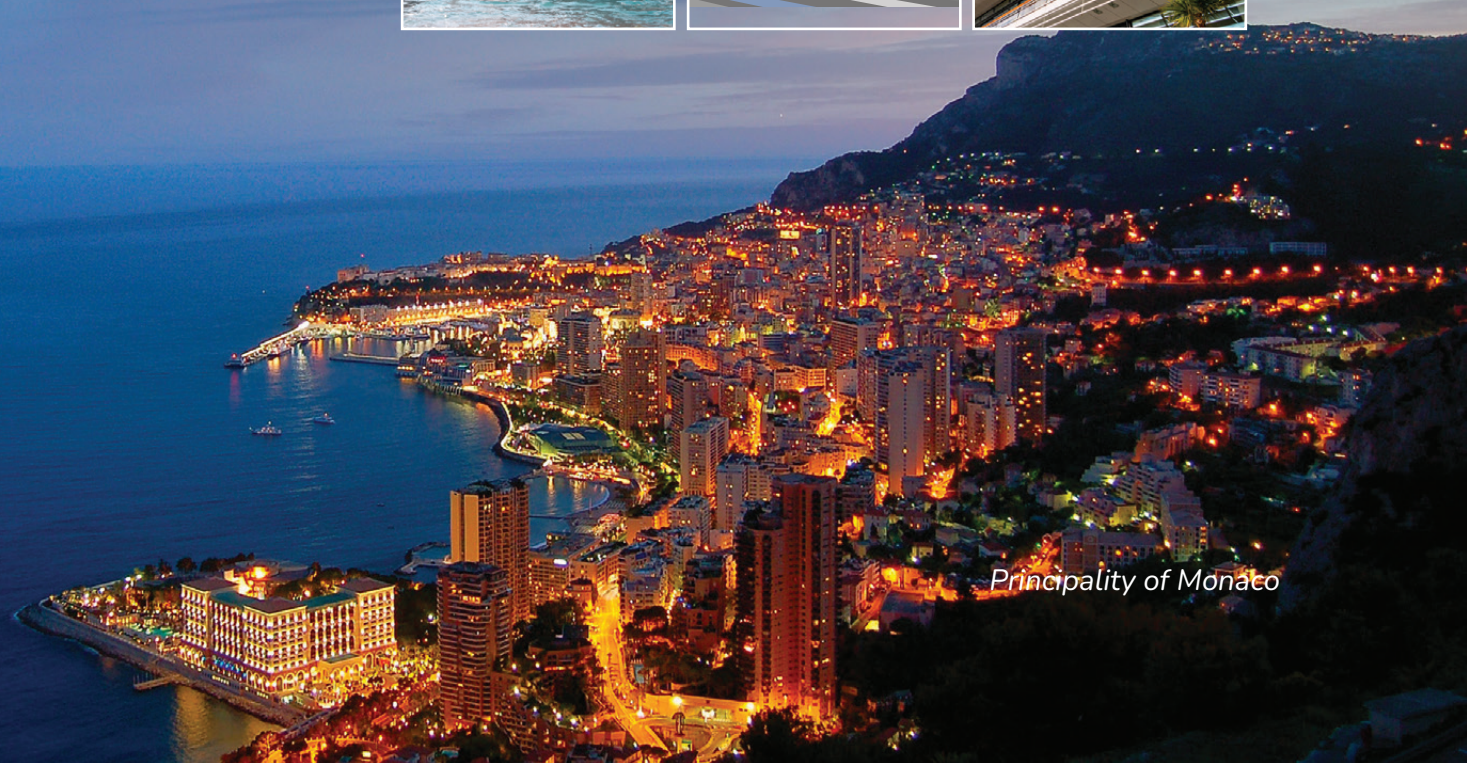

Our long-term client relationships are built on trust, performance, and a genuine passion for aviation.

Whether you are buying or selling, Boutsen Aviation stands at your side as a dedicated partner, managing every aspect of the transaction and committed to preserving the value of your asset and your time.

Monaco, A Hub of Prestige and Opportunity.

Based in Monaco between the Mediterranean Sea and the French Alps, Boutsen Aviation capitalizes on the Principality's strategic location at the crossroads of France and Italy to originate and execute international aircraft transactions.

Monaco's dense network of private banks, family offices, and multinational corporations provides direct access to decision-makers and high-net-worth clients worldwide.

Services by an experienced team involved in the entire transaction.

- Sourcing and Appraisal

With over 30 years of experience, we rely on the industry's largest network and the most comprehensive market database to source the right aircraft and deliver precise appraisals for both acquisitions and sales.

- Commercial

We handle all aspects of the aircraft's commercial strategy, including advertising and marketing, presentations to qualified prospects, price negotiations, and offers to purchase or sell.

- Technical

We organize and supervise the pre-purchase inspection to protect our clients' assets and ensure the aircraft meets the industry's best technical standards.

- Administrative

We manage the entire transaction process, including closing and delivery, as well as all associated administrative and contractual formalities.

- Legal

We work with a curated selection of the most reputable aviation law offices worldwide.
